

I WONDER AS I WANDER

^{Gm} I wonder as I ^{Cm} wander out under the sky,
^{Gm} how Jesus the Savior did come for to die,
^{Gm} for poor ord'n'ry people like you and like I.
^{Gm} I wonder as I wander ^{Cm} out under the sky.

^{Gm} When Mary ^{Cm} birthed Jesus, all in a cow stall,
^{Gm} came wise men and farmers and sherherds and all,
^{Gm} and high from the heavens a star's light did fall;
^{Gm} the promise of the ages, ^{Cm} it then did recall.

^{Gm} If Jesus had ^{Cm} wanted for any wee thing,
^{Gm} a star in the sky or a bird on the wing,
^{Gm} or all of God's angels in heav'n for to sing,
^{Gm} he surely could have had it, ^{Cm} 'cause he was the king.

^{Gm} I wonder as I ^{Cm} wander out under the sky,
^{Gm} how Jesus the Savior did come for to die,
^{Gm} for poor ord'n'ry people like you and like I.
^{Gm} I wonder as I wander ^{Cm} out under the sky. ^{Cm} → ^G
