

NEVER BE

Chorus:

Never be a heart that He, couldn't mend each broken piece.
Never be a wounded soul He would ignore.
There will never be a time that He, ever turns His back on me.
There'll never be a life He can't restore.

Verse:

Where do you go when you feel like you've been forsaken?
Nearly forgotten, all alone.
What do you do when your dreams have been broken and shattered?
Does it really matter, anymore?
There is a man, standing with arms open wide, drying these tears that I cried, loving me and giving life.

<Chorus>

Bridge:

Never will I doubt again, I'll never be without a friend.
Never will my eyes fail to see, what the Lord, did for me.

<Final Chorus>

Never be a heart that He, couldn't mend each broken piece.
I know there'll never be a wounded soul He would ignore.
And there'll never be a time that He, ever turns His back on me.
There'll never be, no there'll never be,
Never be, a life He can't restore

Never be
